

New Placement Opportunity: BACKLIT Gallery: Arts and Heritage Research Coordinator

BACKLIT Gallery: Arts and Heritage Research Coordinator

As part of a wider Arts and Wellbeing Programme BACKLIT this opportunity will offer you the chance to research and deliver a project about the First County Asylum once based at King Edwards Park, Sneinton.

The postholder would work with BACKLIT and partners (including UoN, National Justice Museum and STOP (Sneinton Tenants Outreach Project) alongside local community contributors to support the development of local networks to collect findings and data that will culminate in an accessible archive and artistic outcome.

For further details on this M4C exclusive placement, please see the Placement Brief
